100 French Woven Corsets, only a few sizes-18, 26, 27, 28, 29-to close out at 27c. LADIES' CGLLARS.

12 1-2c, Ladies' Mourning Collars, 2c, 12 1-2c, Ladies' White Collars, size 12 1-4

Our stock of Ladies' Muslin Underweat is placed on the second floor. We have marked every garment one-third less than what it cost us. Our prices cannot be matched.

wear, 22c. - The Ladles' Gray Ribbed Underwear, 48c.

For the lack of space we cannot give on the prices and styles. Our stock is proken and the prices are way down. 30c. Infants' All-Wool Flannel Shirts,

Our stock of Curtains was never so complete as it is now, and for bargains in Curtains we invite you to examine our tock.

Odd pairs Curtains, one-third less what they cost to manufacture.

How about this style to wear under your cloak and shirt-waists, 19c, BOYS' WAISTS.
$1.59 BOYS' Slik Stripe Madras Blouse Waists, 25c.
25c. Boys' Shirt-Waists, 19c.

40c. Boys' Shirt-Waists, 1sc. 62 1-2c. Boys' Shirt Waists, 1sc. 51.50 Boys' Blue and Cream Flannel

25c, Ties, 12 1-2c.
Fec. Ties, 25c.
Sc. Colored Hordered Handkerchiefs, 2c.
15c. Celluloid Collars, 5c.
25c, Celluloid, 16c.
50c. Suspenders, 10c.
10 and 15c. Collars, pure linen, 4c.

37 1-2c, Gray and White Shirts (Pants to match), 22c, 75c, All-Wool Red Shirts (Pants to match), 22c match), 42c. 50c. Tan Fleece-Lined Underwear, 37 1-2c. $1 All-Wool Gray Underwear, 89c. $1.50, $2 and $2.55 Red Shirts, $1.25. 60c. Unbleached Canton Flannel Drawors, 25c.

$1.25 Fleece-Lined Shirts, 75c.
$50c. White and Colored Bosom Shirts*
a few left to close at 25c.
$7.1-2c. Outing Shirts, 21c.
$2.50 Blue Flannel Shirts, $1.25.
98c. Madras Bosom Shirts, 49c.
$1 Percale Shirts, 50c.

WHITE SHIRTS.

Some people overlook quality in hunting price, When you come here you want to look at both. Shirts of poor quality are never cheap at any price. We are selling at 69c, a Liney-Rosom Shirt, reinforced back and front, custom made, for 42c.

A 32 Embroadery-Bosom, very much solled, for 75c.

81 Percale Shirts, 75c.

79c. Umbrellas, 45c. Sic. Steel-Rod Umbrellas, 69c. S1.50 Steel-Rod Umbrellas, 8ik, 41. 31 Gentlemen's Steel-Rod Umbrellas, 69c. 32 Gentlemen's Steel-Rod Umbrellas, 31.89 Black Satine Skirts, flannel lined, and two ruffles, 29c. $2.15 Black Satine Skirts, with three ruffles, $1.25.

You need Upholstery Goods, and we were locky enough to get many cheap things in the Damask Department.

75c. Procatelles, 35c.

$1.25 Brocatelles, 45c.

$2 Damask Table-Covers, 75c.

HILDREN'S UNDERWEAR.

CHENILLE GOODS.

50c. Chenille Covers, 26c.
$1 Chenille Covers, 50c.
$1.29 Chenille Covers, 69c.
$2 Chenille Portieres, 51.77.

LACE CURTAINS.

MEN'S WEAR.

MEN'S UNDERWEAR.

WHITE SHIRTS.

UMBRELLAS.

COLORED DAMASK.

JERSEYS.

Ladies' Ribbed Fleece-Lined Under-

25c. Cuffs, Lc.

AFGHANS.

$1.50 Afghans, 50c.

$2 Afghans, 60c.

LADIES' MUSLIN AND FLANNEL UNDERWEAR.

SOCIETY QUITE GAY THE WEEK MARKED BY MANY

BRILLIANT ENTERTAINMENTS. MEMORIES OF THE MISTLETOE BALL

A Unique and Beautiful Event-The pirthday Celebration of the maughters-Virginia Day at the Woman's Club-Other Features.

Lord Bacon says that "the honorablest part of talk is to give the occasion." e through the social index of the ck, and what an array of honorant balls, elegant receptions, and ing entertainments, galore, it sugto "give occasion"! Hard, indeed, ald it be to award the palm to the comblest talker"-so many can lay claim to the honor.

here are balls and there are balls; the "Mistletoe Ball" Friday night mly belongs to the latter class. The ong ago, there was a quaint cusconsisted leaves, it speaks of "the freshmal the purity of feelings far or, to some, it comes as a remany hours enjoyed in gladness, at else, perhaps, had passed in sadenjoyment, under the most grace-auspicious conditions. The scene of music-all combined in a per-ole. The supper was superb, the entire event fully equal to the ectations of the most exacting.

William L. Royall, cream satin, acc. diamonds, and orchids.
E. D. Christian, white and pink is satin, chiffon bodice, pink roses.
James Lyons, black velvet, with

E. D. Taylor, Misses Annie McGuire, Calvin Bragg, Mary Newton, Marian Robins, Hulle Cooke, Fannie McGuire, Mamie Saunders, Maude Stokes, Gabricila Page, Eleanor Bosher, Rerta Wellford, Lelia Grey, Helena Lefroy, Nina Randolph, Anne Tennant, Flossic Tallatt, Annie Lee Affriend, Louise Allan Mayo, Annie Grey, Msdeline English, Helen Lea, Marianne Meade, Mabel Walker, Mary Binford, Lulie Lyons, Grant, Roy Ellerson, Maude Kent, Woodward, — Lewis, Mary Shelton, Chaudia Palmer, Mary Hill, Mattle Purcell, Kathleen Anderson, Kate Harris, Mary Thomas, Alice Catesby, Graham, Bland Clarke, — Arents; Messrs. Mary Thomas, Alice Catesby, Gra, Bland Clarke, — Arents; Messramas Bolling, Thomas N. Carter, Leghre, William Grant, W. C. Bentley, ries Bolling, James L. Anderson, Alian
ts, W. M. Hahliston, John Skelton Wilns, Robert B. Munford, Jr., Courtney,
L. Valenties, Lawis Brannckiney, B. B. Valentine, Lewis Bran-r. Edward Robinson, Murray Dill, arence Young, Phil Powers, Randolph rrington, Byrd Warwick, Percy wher, James Walker, Granville Grey, n Hill Horace Hawes, Linwood An m. E. T. D. Myers, Otis Alfriend, bert Tanner, Joel Perrin, Arthur Mayo. iente Wortham, Charles U. Williams, ames Rutherfoord, DeGraffin Reid Hob-on, Cunningham Hall, James Lyons, adge William J. Leake, Major James Dooley, and Mr. Saunders Hobson. meng the strangers present were: Missipp, of Lexington; Miss Trail; Miss andolph, of Charlottesville; Miss Elder, Staunton; Miss Palmer, of Roanoka; of Buffalo; Miss Young, and Miss

Stately dames, gracious maids, and vellest of lovely debutantes were the the Daughters of the American Revo-tion, which occurred at the Westmore-nd Clab last Monday evening, on heir fifth anniversary. These loyal and patriotic descendants of a noble their fifth anniversary. These loyal and patriotic descendants of a noble race in themselves, preserving the grace and dignity of their filustrious ancesters have banded together in a cause worthy of such patronage—the perpetuation of the memory of deeds unrivaled in history, and of achievements the excelled in tradition. Every, beautiful accessory was brought into use—appropriate decorations, music, an elegant apper, all were there to lend their aid to the general charming result. The toast proposed by Mr. W. W. Henry, and responded to by Mr. Charles Washington Coleman, could have been assigned to no more gallant and representative sons of Virginia, and the insignia of the society shone with peculiar appropriateness through their happy references to a time when the "spinreferences to a time when the "spin ning wheel" stood for what was bes and most beautiful in woman. The celving committee consisted of Mrs. D. Thomas, Mrs. James Lyons, Mrs. Stephen Putney, Mrs. Ben. Purcell, Mrs. Reginald Gilbam, Mrs. Junius Morris, Mrs. Jamea H. Dooley, Mrs. E. V. Terhune, Mrs. Decatur Axtell, Mrs. Watner Moore, Miss Madge Friedley, and Miss Mary Lyons Mayo, who were assisted by Misses Helena Lefroy, Virginia Hayes, Eleanor Bosher, Maude Stokes, Virginia McLeod, Delia Tompkins, Nannie Stegar, Elie Werth, Annie Lee Alfriend, and Miss Gabriella Page. Thomas, Mrs. James Lyons, Mrs.

A party of nine have reason toothank Mrs. Edgar M. Garnett for having made Thursday evening one of the most Passant recollections of the week. They were entertained by her that evening at a delightful card party. Those pre-tent were: Mrs. E. D. Hotchkiss, Mrs. Joseph White, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. Ben, Palmer, Mrs. Luther Warren, Miss. Ben, Palmer, Mrs. Luther Warren, Miss. Helen Moetague, Miss Bettle Clarke, and Mr. Kennon. Seven-handed euchre was the game, and pink the color used in decorations. Mr. Garnett revived an old-time and delicious beverage—apple-toddy—which was enjoyed as only a good old Virginia custom can be enjoyed.

At a meeting of the Ways and Means of the Edward Smith, No. 116 and the Smith of the Smith of the Entertainment Committee.

The membership was found to be 325, an increase of 300 over the number at its organization, one year ago.

The membership was found to be 325, an increase of 300 over the number at its organization, one year ago.

Mrs. Nelson, of Baltimore, is visiting at a very handsome luncheon Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Nelson, of Baltimore, is visiting at a very handsome luncheon Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Joseph A. White is arranging for given by Mrs. John Williams Harrison given by Mrs

Invitations will be issued upon the same plan as that pursued by the committee for the Mistietoe Ball. The reception is one of the most brilliant promises for the winter.

"Virginia-Day" at the Woman's Club last Monday will be the focal point in recollections of this-the club's season of unusual attractions. There lives in Virginia "no man with soul so dead, This that never to himself hath said: This is my own, my native land," and let it be known that her history, her character, her literature are to be discussed. and like minute men at the first blast of the bugle, there appears a waiting host. The announcement that "Virginia host be announcement that "Virginia host." in Literature" would furnish the theme for the literary evening of last week was a signal for a gathering limited as to numbers only by the restrictions imposed by the club. Halls, parlors, and name of mistletoe seems synony-s with mirth and joy. Years ago pliment to the able programme, which had been prepared.

Mrs. J. R. V. Daniels was chairman of the evening, and her discrimination in sending with the New-Year's as a bunch of this pretty plantto show his lave first. s a bunch of this preity plant— correct in history, pure in literature, to show his love finds not an end and besutiful in rhetoric. Her introductory address was in itself a gem, of the mistletoe has not been lost and included a graceful, unstinted enco-ne decline of the custom, or, rather, mium, taken from a northern paper, to > liam Meade Clarke, and while lightened with the humor which lends so much to the charm of a speaker, was a clear, thoughtful, resume of the part taken by Virginia in the literary productions of tendency and convincing in conclusion, it refuted Mr. Henry Cabot Lodge's claim that Massachusetts by comparison with Virginia, stood foremost in literary accomplishments during the early days of their history. Mr. Clarke maintained that the difference lay in degree, and not in fact; that it was "better to have placed among the classics the few that were not born to die," than to have were not born to die, than to have written whole libraries of words. Vir-ginia, he declared, had raised a standard of "quality and not of quantity." and he sustained his point by reference and quotation to the entire satisfaction of o were an elegant gown of creamered brocade sain, with lewelled fron trimmings and diamonds.

Irs. James W. Allison, white satin, chess lace, an Anis.

Carter, pink satin,
100 and 180, could not be excelled, and ments of the intervening years between 1800 and 1800, could not be excelled, and as a polished rhetorical production, was unexceptionable. Edgar Allen Poe, Nathaniel Beverly Tucker, John R. Thompson, John Esten Cooke, and all the bright galaxy of literary lights of that period were treated in a masterly style, and with an appreciative intelligence second not even to their own.

Miss Daniel, in reviewing the magazines which, in years past had done so much toward the advancement of literary work and taste in the South, de-plored the present want in that great field—the want of a southern magazine. the traditions of a people, in some thing unique, in many exceptional, and in all worthy of a record. She contended ably and elequently that such an accomplish-ment was possible, and only wanted a

Mrs. E. T. Rebins, black satin, with trimmings of yellow.

Mrs. William C. Pentiey, black satin, with chiffon and jet trimmings.

There was a general outpouring of society, some among them being: Mrs. Junius James H. Dooley, Mrs. Henry Bohmer, Mrs. W. Penick Shelton, Mrs. Junius Morris, Mrs. E. A. Saunders, Mrs. W. Powers, Dr. and Mrs. Junius Morris, Mrs. E. A. Saunders, Mrs. W. Powers, Dr. and Mrs. Junius Morris, Mrs. E. A. Saunders, Mrs. W. Powers, Dr. and Mrs. Junius Morris, Mrs. E. A. Saunders, Mrs. W. Powers, Dr. and Mrs. Junius Morris, Mrs. E. A. Saunders, Mrs. W. Powers, Dr. and Mrs. Junius Morris, Mrs. E. A. Saunders, Mrs. W. Powers, Dr. and Mrs. Junius Morris, Mrs. E. A. Saunders, Mrs. Weller Lewis, but in her absence was read most acceptably by Mr. Eugene Massie. It was succinct and strong, covering, as it did, a period (from 1899) to 1865) little conducive to literary effort or success—a period in which the sword was mightier than the pen—when the scong of the poet was drowned in the anguished moan of the sufferer. But in all the darkness, Miss Lewis showed that there were some rifus through which a ray of purest effulgence found its way, and celearmantala. Mrs. Sirette lrys great stress upon the necessity of broad culture for the musician of to-day: Literary ability, and a genulne love of music he regards as essential, especially to an instructor. He recommends stories of musicians, and music for the ray ability, and a genulne love of musicians, and music for the ray ability, and a genulne love of musicians and music for the ray ability. And a genulne love of music he regards as essential, especially to an instructor. He recommends attories of musicians, and music literary ability, and a genulne love of musicians, and music literary, ability, and a genulne love of musicians, and music literary, ability, and a genulne love of musicians, and music literary, ability, and a genulne love of musicians, and music literary, ability, and a genulne love of musicians, and music literary, ability, and a genulne there were none which afforded more remi niscent delight and fascinating charm than those of John R. Thompson and than those of John K. Thompson and George W. Bagby, both one-time editors of the Southern Literary Messenger. A beautiful poem, written by Mr. Gordon McCabe, and found in the pocket of a wounded Confederate soldier, was among the choice extracts which enriched the

Mrs. Daniel's paper, "Virginia Literature Since the War," was the last on the programme. From beginning to conclusion it showed perfectly familiarity with its subject. There were no names familiar as Virginia writers of recent date She paid to each a tribute omitted. She paid to each a tribute; but, dwelling upon the general recognition accorded Commodors Matthew Fontaine Maury, she told of a remarkable frieze, doubless unknown to many, and certainly worth hearing of by all. Of this beautiful frieze, which adorns the walls of the new Boston library, she says: "This frieze around the walls of the property around the walls of the contraction of the says." great apartment contains, cut into it famous men of the entire world—that is as viewed through the eyes of the peo-ple of Massachusetts. From the Bible, only two are found worthy-Moses and it. Paul. Washington is there; Lee and St. Paul. Washington and Sheridan, Sherman, Thomas, and Meade, are there. You find there, too, among Virginians, Jefferson, Madison, Edgar Allan Poe; but the only Virginian of our period—a fitting recognition-is the name of Com-modore Maury."

In conclusion, she said Two hundred ears ago the English King was proud years ago the English King was proud to write upon his Colony's coat-of-arms, "En Dat Virginia Quartram." Lei of my realm, Virginia gives a fourth; a century passed, and Virginia gave this quota, and more, of the men who became the liberators of the men who became the liberators of the men who became the liberators of the great republic of the West. Now join me in this aspiration: May the day come when Virginia, despite detraction and prejudice; despite her reserve and self-restraint, by patient toil, which brings success in the kingdom of serve and self-restraint, by patient toil, which brings success in the kingdom of letters as well, shall inscribe on her escutcheon the triumphant blazon—"En Dat Virginia Quartram."

The guests of the chairman were Mrs. J. P. McGuire, Mrs. John Dunn, Mrs. Landonia Dashiell, Mrs. J. H. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Walker, Miss Molle lettries Miss Porterfield. Jeffries, Miss Porterfield.

. . . The regular fortnightly tea at the Woman's Club will be given to-morrow (Monday) afternoon from 5 to 8 o'clock. During the evening Miss Lizzle Taylor, of Norfolk, will sing several selections, and Mrs. James R. Werth will read a short circular, particularly interesting to

On Tuesday evening, February 4th, at on Tuesday evening, February 4th, at haif-past 8 o'clock, Miss Annie L. Edwards, of New York, will lecture before the club on "Spanish and Native Life in Manila; the Capital of the Philippine Islands." Miss Edwards spent two years to those distant islands, and gives a lively account of the inhabitants—their manners, customs, and progress in civilization under Spanish rule. Her repertoire includes lectures upon Egypt, and upon ancient Greek and Egyptian art, besides shorter talks in lighter vein interesting and anywing incidents. art, besides shorter takes in lighter vein upon interesting and amusing incidents, which came to her notice during her extended journeys abroad. She is a direct descendant of Jonathan Edwards and of General Seth Pomeroy.

on this occasion, as at all evening en-tertainments, without exception, mem-bers are entitled to invite gentlemen as escorts, or ladies holding viscitors' cards, but no ladies residing in Richmond.

Committee of "Confederata Memorial Literary Society," held at Mrs. E. C. Minn's last Mönday, a committee was appointed, consisting of Mrs. E. D. Taylor (chairman). Mrs. Edmund Strudwick, and Mrs. W. Ben, Palmer, to secure a place to hold a reception on the anniversary of the organization of the association February 22d. They have been fortunate enough to secure the Commonwealth Club for this purpose, and the reception will take place on that date from 8 to 11 P. M. It is expected that Mrs. General George E. Pickett will be present.

Invitations will be issued upon the same plan as that pursued by the committee for the Mistietoe Ball. The reception is one of the most brilliant reception. So one of the most brilliant reception is one of the most brilliant reception. Ben. Palmer, and Mrs. W. Clayton Lefebvre. A list of those present would include a large majority of the representatives of fashion in the city, among them being Mrs. Frances Deane Williams, Mrs. Phillip Bruce, Mrs. James Allison, Mrs. John Dunlop, Judge L. L. Lewis, Mrs. Landonia P. Dashiell, Mrs. Robbie Minor, Miss Eva Deneville, Mrs. Levis Lofe. Robbie Minor, Miss Eva Deneville, Mrs. Levin Joynes, Dr. George Ben. Johnston, Mrs. O. E. Crenshaw, Miss Mary Cameron, General Bradley T. Johnson, Mrs. W. James Walker, Miss Maria Blair, Mr. William H. Grant, Mrs. Leary, Mrs. J. W. Cringan and Miss Cringan, Mrs. James D. Patton, Mrs. Isaacs, Mrs. J. R. V. Daniel, Mrs. Jackson Guy, Miss Saille Williams, of Orange; Misses Hattle and Fannie Ross, Mrs. Caskle Cabell, and many others. and many others. There was a noticeable number of strangers at the Tuesday german last week, which was led by Mr. W. S. P. Mayo, and furnished one of the most pleasant events of the week's enjoyment Mesdames Austin Brockenbrough, Ro bert Powers, Charles Evelyn Smith, Mon-cure Perkins, Robert Blankenship, Adol-phus Blair, and Graham Hobson were the chaperons; and those in attendance were: Misses Heiena Lefroy, Ella Jack-son, Maude Stokes, Eleanor Bosher, Helen Lea, Della Tompkins, Nina Ranthe touchstone of pride—the intreplid most lovable of most lovable of read by Rev. Willind while lightened lich lends so much caker, was a clear, the part taken by ary productions of Controversial in the inconceusion, it lees Bragg, Eddia Ouarles, Lewis Brand.

Mr. Thomas Whitney Surette lectured before Mrs. Albert C. Bruce's school of music, at No. 114 Shafer street, Monday and Tuesday of last week. The subject of the first lecture was Wagner's "Par-sifal." Mr. Surette told the story simply illustrating by means of stereopticor views, and playing some of the most characteristic motifs. This piano-playing the audience to recognize the music which represented the different charac-ters as they came upon the scene. It was a veritable panorama in sound, in which he brought out the main elements of the drama-suffering and aspiration. On Tuesday afternoon Beethover was the theme. Beethoven, as a man, and his steady republicanism, stood out clear y, and the picture on the screen, aided by the effective and analytical piano-playing, made the whole a won-derfully impressive recital. The "Fune-ral March," in conclusion, was rendered with so much feeling that some of the

Mrs. Bruce deserves the thanks of the Richmond public for the introduction of the Beautiful, Old-World musical drama of "Parsifal," which she did not accomplish without enterprise, perseverance, and determination. Mr. Surette lays great stress upon the necessity of bread culture for the musician of to-day: Literary, ability, and a genuine love of music schools asking for mite contributions to the fund for the restoration and preser-ration of Mt. Vernon—that sepulche of n nation's hero and monument to a na-tion's simple grandeur. The 22d of Feb-cuary has been selected as an appropriate day upon which to send in the contri-butions, and it is to be hoped the pa-triotism of parents generally may in-spire the zeal of the children to the de-sire to add their mites toward the persire to add their mites toward the per-petuation of a landmark rich in historical importance, and surrounded by associa-tions and traditions dear to every son and daughter of Virginia. The schools of Kansas, Colorado, Michigan, New Jer-sey, Louisiana, and other States have given substantial evidence of their inte-rest in the project, but as yet Virginia has done nothing. Mrs. Ball appeared before the first meeting of the Children before the first meeting of the Children of the American Revolution and ex of the American Revolution and ex-plained the purposes of the undertaking. She was much encouraged by their ready and intelligent response, and was glad to find in them the first in this State to in the good work.

"Butterfly sandwiches and hummingbird tengues, with essence of plants for the beverage," is a menu which Aurora would fly upon the wings of the moon to secure, and yet here it is within the easy reach of every one who attend the "Butterfly Tea" to be given at 306 west Franklin street Friday, February 5th, from 5 to 10 o'clock P. M. The entertainment will be given for the benefit of the Virginia Home for Incurables, and is exceedingly unique. There will be a young lady at the door to receive such pieces of gold silver as the generosity and politics of th visitors may suggest, which will be the ised, including the delicious bill of fare mentioned. Music and song will enliven the hours, and the one "apple that ripens" for the temptation of the spender will be a display of butterflies and candy, beautiful and delicious. The ladies hope that all friends of the home will rally to its help in this small way.

Last Wednerday was a severe test of the love of members of the Art Club for their work, but their earnestness proved equal to the trial, and through all proved equal to the trait, and through and the inclemency of the weather, many were present. Miss Adele Williams was there to give her capable and helpful criticism, and will, by urgent request, conduct a sketch class through the months of February and March. The class is limited in numbers, and will meet every Friday Friday, February 5th, will be at noon. Friday, February ath, will be observed as an evening of social enjoyment, and Captain Gordon McCabe is expected to add much to its success by reading a paper on Tennyson, which being prepared by himself, can leave nothing to wish in the way of excellence. Mrs. Parker Dashiell, assisted by Mrs. William Bentley and Miss Mary Mann Page Newton, is the committee in charge of the evening.

of the evening. At the annual meeting of the Rich elected, Mrs. Charies Bolling's name be-elected, Mrs. Charies Bolling's name be-ing added as third vice-president: Presid-dent, Mrs. N. V. Randolph; First Vice-President, Miss May Green Baughman; Second Vice-President, Mrs. J. E. B. Stuart; Treasurer, Mrs. Frank T. Crump; Scartary, Mrs. Austin Brockenbrough; Secretary, Mrs. Austin Brockenbrough; Executive Committee-Mrs. Peyton Wise, Miss Kate Lee, Miss Minnie Baughman, Mrs. Gordon Wallace, and Mrs. Edward

THE TOWER."

A STOREFUL OF BARGAINS!

This store will be the objective point to-morrow of thousands who read this advertisement. The most decided bargains of the season await all. In every department through the house we offer the greatest and grandest bargains of the season. The list shows many, but only tells a portion of the story.

WHITE GOODS. We are showing an immense line of

We are showing an immense line of Sheer White Goods:
7 1-2c, Checked Muslin, 4c,
7c, White India Linen, 27 inches wide, 5c,
11c, White India Linen, 8 1-3c,
12 1-2c, White India Linen, 10c,
17c, White India Linen, 12 1-2c,
25c, White India Linen, 15 2-3c,
19c, White India Linen, 15 2-3c,
19c, White Apron Muslin, plain and stripe, 40 inches wide, 12 1-2c,
18c, White Persian Lawn, 32 inches wide, 12 1-2c,
25c, White Persian Lawn, 32 inches wide,
16 2-3c.

5 2-30. 25c. White Organdie, 31 inches wide, 17c. 29c. White Organdie, 49 inches wide, 29c. 47c. White Organdie, 48 inches wide, 25c. 63 1-2c. White Grenadine, 52 inches wide

60c. Fleece-Lined Pique, 25c. 17c. White Pique, 12 1-2c. 37 1-2c. Colored Organdie, 21c.

Tic. White Table Linen, 63 inches wide, Il White Table Linen, 63 inches wide, $1.42 White Table Linen, 63 inches wide,

31.10 White Denim Napkins, 78c.
31.20 White Denim Napkins, 88c.
37 1-2c. Colored Check Napkins, 29c.
37 1-2c. Colored Check Napkins, 29c.
10c. Linen Huck Towels, 1825, 9c.
10c. White Cotton Towels, 18x55, 4 1-2c.
25c. Linen Damask Towels, 19x55, 12c.
Remnants Table Linen at one third of e original cost. WHITE SPREADS.

WHITE SPREADS.

Il White Spreads, 10-4, 64c.
$1.12 1-2 White Spreads, 11-4, 76c.
$1.69 White Spreads, 12-4, Marsellies pattern Crochet Qulits. These quilts are made of extra quality yarn, both warp and filling, and are free from any substance that would add to their weight; all ready hemmed for use. We will self a limit quantity to-morrow for $1.52.
$25.39 White Spreads, Marsellies pattern, $1.50.

ep it.

3 1-2c. Torchon Lace, 1c. a yard,
4c. Torchon Lace, 1 3-4c.
4 1-2c. Torchon Lace, 2c.
6 1-4c. Torchon Lace, 3c.
8c. Torchon Lace, 4c.
10c. Torchon Lace, 5c.
12 1-2c. Torchon Lace, 6-1-4c.
12 yards Linen Torchon Lace, 5c.
We have just received a new line of White and Cream Laces, and Inserting to match. You will find them displayed in front of the store as you enter.
12 1-2c. Oriental Lace, 8 1-3c.
HAMBURGS. HAMBURGS.

HAMBURGS.

6 1-4c. Hamburgs, 3 5-8c,
7c. Hamburgs, 4 7-8c,
12 1-2c. Hamburgs, 8 1-3c,
16 2-3c. Hamburgs, 14c,
20c. Hamburgs, 14c,
16 2-3c. Swiss Edge, 10c,
81.50 Skirting, 25c,
25 Skirting, 25 Skirting, 25c,
25 Skirting, 25c,
25 Skirting, 25c,
25 Skirting, 25

$1.25 Skirring, 50c.
Our Hamburg stock and the prices cannot be matched. We have a full line of Insertings and Swisses to match, prices ranging from 5 1-2c, to $1.25 a yard.

bottle Ammonia, 5c. box Talcum Powder, 8c. Tollet Sosp, Uncle Crisp, 2 cakes for

5c. bottle Bay-Rum, 10c.
Meade & Baker's Mouth Wash, 15c.
Glycerine Soap, warranted pure, sold for
lic. a box of 3 cakes, 6c. a box.
15c. bottle Pure Glycerine, 9 1-2c.
15c. bottle Pure Lettuce Creum, 10c.
20c. box Washinston Stove Polish, 1c.
1 dozen Rubber Hair-Pins, 10c.
15c. Needle-Cases, 6 packages, 41-2c.
3c. Pins, 1c.
20c. Stick Camphor, 10c.
15c. cakes Shaving Soap, 10c.
15c. Corset-Splits, 3c.

oks and Eyes, ic. Tape Hooks and Eyes, 5c. a yard. Hair-Brushes, ioc.

agon Cotton, 20c. a dozen.

Mourning Cuff and Stud Sets, 10c.

Ladies' Tan Purses, 12 1-2c.

Ide. Paper-Back Novels, 3c.
Embroidery Silk, 5c. a dozen.
Knitting Silk, all shades, 6c.
10 packages Square Envelopes, 25c.
8c. boxes Paper, 4 1-2c.
11c. packages Writing-Paper, 9c.
12c. Novels, nicely bound, 10c.
12c. Novels, nicely bound, 10c.
12c. hank White Embroidery Thread, 1c.
10c. cake La Parislenne Soap, 3c.
10c. pound Pure Castile Soap, 12 1-2c.
10c. Cape Snow Cap Soap, 3c.
10c. Tooth-Brushes, 5c.
10c. Tooth-Brushes, 5c.
10c. Curling-Iron, 4c.
10c. Rubber Comb 6 inches), 5c.
11 Table-Covers, plush centres, 25c.
12 Chair Scarfs, $1.50.
White Tape, 12 1-2c, a dozen.
13 Dress Trimmings, 1c. a yard.
15d. Black Satine Corset Hooks, 8c.
10c. Kid Curlers 6 inches), 9c.
Linen Corset Laces, 4 for 5c.
10c. box Invisible Hair-Pins, in gold and silver, 2c.
Mourning Veil-Pins, 3 dozen for 5c.

10c. Paper-Back Novels, 3c

sliver, 2c. Mourning Veil-Pins, 3 dozen for 5c. Springfield Safety-Pins, 25c. for arus. 19c, Duplex Nickel Safety-Pins, 5c, dozen. 15c, S-inch Rubber Combs, 19c. 15c, Fine-Toeth Combs, 5c. 29c, Gentlemen's Rubber Pocket-Combs, DRESS GOODS.

We are persistent in keeping the Dress-We are persistent in Keeping the Dress-Goods interest of the store always before the people, for such growth as this department has attained the past twelve months is phenomenal. The fact that we show in many instances the same goods shown by other houses, but at a lower price, should command the respect and trade of a very great portion of Richmond Dress-Goods buyers at retail.

25. Shepherd's Plaids, 12 1-2c.

37.1-2c. Fancy Mixed Plaids, 12 1-2c.

38.1-2c. Black-Ground, with White Stripe,

37 1-2c. Black-Ground, with White Stripe,

NEW PERCALES.

Those who have enjoyed our stock of these exquisite Percaies will hardly need an invitation to come again, but there's a fresh addition how, and nowhere else is there anything like them:

10. Percaies, 6 1-4c.
11.1-2c. Percaies, 8 1-3c.

NEW LACES.

We have made a better lace store here than you have known. It is more comprehensive, more hopeful. We carry the largest and best line of Laces in the city. We have that reputation, and we are going to keep it.

3 1-2c. Torchon Lace, ic, a yard.

Many new things we are adding to our stock every day.

BLACK DRESS GOODS.

BLACK DRESS GOODS.

The Black Dress Goods which you find here is not merely a complete assortment—it is a selected assortment. Trained eyes and fingers and cultured taste have passed critical judgment on every piece that's here. You cannot go wrong. We are showing all the fashionable styles and textures, especially imported for this spring and summer.

10 pieces Jacquard, small and large figures, 50c., instead of $1.
50c. Siellian, 55c.
31 Boucle, 75c.
32 Boucle, 75c. $1 Houcle, 75c. Cooling Serges, 44 inches, 45c. Our Henrietta and prices cannot be natched.

Silk surprises continue. This offering s not limited to a few lines of Silks, but a comprehensive gathering of wanted roods at prices making them almost irre-

24-inch Black Faille, $1, instead of $1.89. Heavy Black Sateen Rhadama, 75c. in-lead of $1. ack Peau de Soie, $1 instead of $1.69. ack Pigured Slik, $1. ack and Colored Crepe Silks, 12 1-2c. Drapery Slik, $2c.

RIBBONS. We have placed a lot of Ribbon on the ounter for Monday; some sold for 25c. Ve sell them all at 4c. a yard.

VEHLINGS. VEHLINGS.

50c. Veilings, Blue, Purple, and Green, fish-net with chenille dot, 10c.
45c. Elack Veiling, illusion with beaded
GLOVES.

Miss Lucie Wilson, of Amelia, is with Mrs. George Watt. Taylor, No. 2717 east Grace street.

things to Mrs. J. R. V. Daniel.

Grace street.

$1.25 Blanket, foll size, 10-4, 75c. $1.87 1-2 Blankets, 10-4, we only have 6 left, so we will close them out at $5c. $2.50 Blankets, slightly soiled, $1.50. $10 Blankets, all wool, 11-4, $6.08.

QUILTS. $1.12 1-2 Quilts, 79c. 15 Down Quilts, $3.29. CARPETS.

CARPETS.

Make a visit to our Carpet Department.
You will find some stunning bargains. We need room for other goods. The space it occupies is too valuable just now. Don't fall to call on us if you want a Carpet.
75c. Tapestry Carpet, 40c.
85c. Tapestry Carpet, 50c.
95c. Roxbury Carpet, 61c.
31.25 Velvet Carpet, 65c.
25c. Ingrain Carpet, 151-2c.
40c. Ingrain Carpet, 152-2c.
40c. Ingrain Carpet, 20c.
60c. Ingrain Carpet abc.
56c. Cocoa Matting, 22c.
Remnants Carpet at half-price.
Nice, Bright Fur Rugs, 75c.

We have carried over too many Mattings, and we have marked every piece down so we can have the room for our new spring stock.

12 1-2 and 16 2-3c. Mattings, 7c.
29 and 25c. Mattings, 19c.
25, 30, and 37 1-2c. Linen Warp Mattings.

WINDOW-SHADES. 30c. Window Shades, 23c. 50c. Window Shades, 37 1-2c. 62 1-2c. Window Shades, 42c. 80c. Window Shades, 9 feet, 50c.

OIL-CLOTHS. 37 1-2c. Floor Oil-Cloth, 22c. 50c. Floor Oil-Cloth, slight damage, 25c. 2-yards-wide 75c. Oil-Cloth, slight damage, 25c. 81 Oil-Cloth, 2 yards wide, 50c, 25c. Table Oil-Cloth, 12 i-2c. yard. RUGS AND DRUGGETS.

40c. Smyrna Rugs, 121-2c. 88 Feit Druggets, $4.59. 96 Ingrain Druggets, $5.50. 82 Kasmira Rugs, 97c.

BOYS' CLOTHING. They must go! The lots are broken and prices have been cut to pieces. The qualities are good. You may be lucky to strike age or size you want. We are closing all Hoys' Clothing out—take too much space. All Boys' Clothing way below cost. Suits for 69, 90c., $1, $1,25, $1,50, $1,75, $2, and $2.50. They are worth twice as much.

HOSIERY.

10c. Children's Black Hoslery, 3c.
10c. Children's Tan Ribbed Hose, 5c.
16.2.3c. Children's Black Ribbei Hose, with double heels and toes, 12.1-2c.
25c. Ladies' Black Hose, 17c.
17c. Ladies' Black Seamless Hose, 12.1-2c.
12.1-2c. Ladies' Black Seamless Hose, 10c.
25c. Ladies' Fancy-Stripe Hose, 12.1-2c.
Children's Ribbed Hose, sold for 49 and 26c.—21c. DOMESTICS.

5c. Apron Gingham, 31-2c.
121-2c. Flannellette, 81-3c.
121-2c. Sateen Crepons, 5c.
10c. Dark Crotonnes, 5c.
10c. Dark Crotonnes, 5c.
2c. 10c. Bed-Ticks, 8c.
2c. 10-4 Unbleached Sheeting, 121-2c.
36c. 10-4 Bleached Sheeting, 25c.
121-2c. Blue Denim, 10c.
15c. Blue Denim, 121-2c.
9c. Unbleached Jeans, 61-4c.
25c. Fancy Satine, 10c.
121-2c. Black Satine, 81-3c.
Utica Sheeting, 21c.
7c. Apron Gingham, 5c.
121-2c. Sheeting, 81-3c.
Rempants Bleached Cotton, 10-yard lengths, 5c. a piece.
Remnants Unbleached Jeans, 5-yard lengths, 30c. a piece.

Sc. Domet Flannel, 45-3c.
20c. All-Wool Flannel, 192-3c.
162-3c. All-Wool Flannel, 121-2c.
162-3c. Gray Flannel, 121-2c.
271-2c. Hol Twill Flannel, 241-2c.
25c. Brick-Red Flannel, 181-2c.
26c. Twill Flannel, 36c.
40c. Domet Flannel, 25c.
871-2c. Embroidery Flannel, 50c.
81 Embroidery Flannel, 75c.
81.371-2 Embroidery Flannel, 31.

45c. Black Veiling, filusion with beaded dot, 5c.
45c. Black Veiling, with chenille and tinsel dot, 5c.
31 1-2c. Red Veiling, 5c.
40c. Black Veiling, close chenille dot, 15c.
BI ANKETS.
Our stock is too large, so we were compeled to reduce the prices. This will be positively the last cut:

GLOVES.
St. Tan Plg-Skin Gloves, 66c.
St. Tan

Julius Sycle & Son, The Tower, 201 and 203, Cor. Second and Broad.

features, which it is the purpose of the association to inaugurate. The treasurer's association to inaugurate. The treasurer a report would alone prove the spirit and success of the chapter, reporting, as it did, $135 given to the Solid South room at the Museum during the year. The chapter will be represented by delegates to the next annual convention of the Grand Division of the Daughters of the Convention of the Co federacy, which meets at Alexandria.

The Auxiliary Hollywood Memorial Association is earnest and helpful. Their spirit of enterprise will manifest itself in an entertainment embracing many attrac tive features, to be given in the near tu ture. The membership now consists of Misses Bessie Hill, Maude McKenney, Ruby Bodeker, Lázzle Lownes, Mabel Walker, Annie Grey, Lelia Grey, Dora-rugh, Lucy Atkinson, Neille Boykin, Elle Werth, Ethel Atkinson, Kathleen Anderson, Allee Henning, Mrs. Austin Brockenbrough, Mrs. Ruggles Nelson, Mrs. Charles Bolling, Miss Ellen Bagby, Mrs. Charles Bolling, Miss Ellen Hagby, Mrs. M. Van Doren, Mr. Jacob Van Doren, and Mrs. Bryce Stewart Hume. Mr. Hume was elected an honorary member at the last meeting. At 4 o'clock next Tuesday, at the Young Men's Christian Association Hall, there will be another meeting, at which a full attendance is desired.

. . . A delightful card party was given by A delightful card party was given by Miss Nannie McGruder on last Wednesday night, at which she entertained about twenty-five of her friends. The first lady's prize was awarded to Miss Bessle Scott, and the second to Miss Mabel Dobbins, the successful ger being Mr. Guy Cherry and Mr. Harold

Miss Maria Blair has arranged to have Mr. Charles Poindexter lecture before her Shakespearean class next Tuesday afternoon on "Othello," the class having just completed their readings in that play. Mr. Poindexter is a careful and thorough the form of Shakespeare, and the rememstudent of Shakespeare, and the remem-brance of his lecture two years ago on the same subject before the same class insures a large attendance,

The bazzar February 16th under the The bazaar February Ista under the auspices of the Associated Hospitals, gives promise of a most gratifying success. Contributions of money, fancy articles, and saleable wares should be sent to Mrs. Harry Frasier, and donations to the restaurant to Mrs. William H.

Miss Van Wycka, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. W. R. Trigg. Miss Landon Rives, of Castle Hill, Albemarle county, is visiting Mrs. Allan Potts, on Harrison street. Miss Lewis Butt, of Augusta, Ga., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Luther War-ren, on Harrison street.

The Wednesday Matinee Whist Club will meet next Wednesday at Mrs. Archie Patterson's, Floyd avenue. Mr. Hopkins, of New York, is visiting his cousin, Mrs. Henry Gibson.

Miss Coles, of Albemarle, is the guest of Mrs. George Ben. Johnston, of the poor of the city. Miss Bettle Clarke is with Mrs. C. E. Doyle, 916 Park avenue.

Misses Sallie B. and Margaret Stokes

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Pender, of Bal-timore; Mr. John B. and Miss Mary Sirich, of Baltimore; Miss Louise Affeld, of Brooklyn, and Miss Pennie Gray, of North Carolina, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Gordon and Miss Gordon,

The Misses Blankenship will be at home informally Wednesday, February 3d, from 5 to 7 o'clock.

Miss Mozelle Dibrell Apperson is visit-

Miss Kate Kennon Williams, of 1223

Floyd avenue, has returned to the city.

Miss Julia Little, a charming debutant

Mrs. Josephine Trevillian, of 1100 Park avenue, has left for Washington, to spend a month with Mrs. William L. Wilson.

For Burial of Confederate Widows.

There was a meeting yesterday at noon in the office of City-Tax-Collector Frank representatives from the Lee Camp, Sons of Veterans, the Daughters of Veterans, and Woman's Relief Corps. Those pres-ent were Messrs. Virginius Newton, G. H. Baughman, D. S. Redford, and Frank

W. Cunningham.

The subject of burying indigent widows of Confederate soldiers was informally discussed, no definite action being de-

Mr. Newton thought that $200 would be amply sufficient for the purpose of forming a fund for the burial of indigent vidows of Confederate soldiers, and the other members of the committee fully agreed with him. He also thought that the amount could be raised by voluntary contributions from members of the va-rious organizations.

The sub-committee called upon Colonel Cutshaw yesterday afternoon, and examined into the plans of certain sections in River-View Cemetery. This body will report at the next meeting of the General to Danville to live with her uncle,

Persons desiring to contribute to the Sheltering-Arms Founders'-Day dinner. February 12th, are requested to send the are visiting Mrs. A. Y. Stokes, No. 15 east Franklin. . . . Misses Mary and Carrie Miller, of Rap-The annual meeting of the Rebekah Peterkin Memorial Association will be held at the Young Men's Christian Association next Friday, February 5th, at sing at Monumental church this after-noon at 4 o'clock.

Miss Annie L. Edwards, of New York, is the guest of Miss Claire Guillaume, 7 east Grace street.

The next meeting of the Fortnightly Whist Club will be held at the residence of Mrs. Luther Camp, 1703 east Broad Miss Shipp, of Lexington, is visiting at Judge Keith's.

There was a very large attendance at the entertainment given at Mrs. Hind's, east Franklin street, Thursday night, for ing her western relatives. She has been away from the city several months, staying at St. Louis and Kansas City, Mo., Fort Smith, Van Buren, and Little Rock, Ark. She is expected home in a week or two, and will thereafter move to Danyille to live with her uncle R. I. the benefit of the Free Kindergarten and general poor. It was successful in every particular, the chief attractions being the "Brownie and Doll Drills," in which all of the children were excellent in their various parts. Refreshments were served by the St. John's Circle of King's Dibrell, and her grandmother, Mrs. R. H. Dibrell, now of that city. Daughters.

The "Silver Tea" held at the residence of Mrs. Marcy, on Friday, was well at-tended. The house was beautifully de-corated with green and pink, the tables being especially attractive. Mrs. Ergce of New York city, is the guest of Mrs. J. Allison Hodges, 204 west Grace. Stuart Hume received the guests, assisted by Mrs. Marcy, Miss Mabel Currie, Miss Dalsy Whittet, Miss Ruby Bodeker, and Miss Elliott.

The next meeting of the Ladies' Auxili ary of the Virginia Hospital will be held on Tuesday, the 2d, at 11 o'clock. Owing to the greatly increased attendance, it has been found necessary to hold the meetings in the amphitmentre, where they will assemble in the future, until suitable provision is made.

Miss Esther Menifee, of Staunton, is the guest of Mrs. E. D. Taylor, No. 3 east Franklin. The Mirror, the principal society paper of St. Louis, notes the presence in that city of Mrs. Ben. H. Nash, of Richmond, and Miss Elizabeth Hayes. The atten-tion shown these representatives of Rich-mond society attained a brilliant climax in a receptior tendered Mrs. Nash by Mrs. J. S. Finkenbiner, who is pleasant-Mrs. J. S. Finkenbiner, who is pleasantly remembered as a former resident of

There was a very beautiful dinner given to a small number of friends at Brook Hill last Wednesday.

Miss Louise Alian Mayo entertained a number of friends at cards Thursday.

Mrs. Richmond Pearson was the hostess at a very handsome luncheon Thursday afternoon.

FIRE IN A PRIVATE RESIDENCE. Little Sick Girl Narrowly Excape

the flames. The residence of Mr. John Parrish, No. 610 north Twenty-seventh street, was damaged by fire last night, and his little daughter, who was confined to her bed with illness, narrowly escaped being pahannock county, very popular with a badly burned, large circle of friends and admirers in this city, are the guests of the family of Dr. C. H. Ryland.

Miss Elizabeth Taylor, of Norfolk, will was with great difficulty that the child. It was with great difficulty that the child was gotten out of the apartment. A still alarm was sent to No. 1 Engine-House and, the fire laddles responding, quickly quenched the flames.

The furniture was damaged to the extent of about $25, and was not insured. The house, which is the property of Mr.

J. S. Moore, was only slightly damage

NEWS FROM THE SICK. Dr. Parker Is Recovering-Mr. Bishop Still Very III.

Dr. J. W. Henson, who is attending Dr. W. W. Parker, stated last night that his patient was doing very well, and was on the high road to recovery. The condition of Mr. W. B. Bishop, who was recently stricken with paralysis, remains unchanged. He is critical-The condition of Mr. John Morton is considered critical.

Governor O'Ferrall is much improved.

Captain Charles H. Epps who rethigh, is resting quietly at his home. Mrs. T. C. Bennett and her daughter, Miss Jessie Bennett, are ill with the grip at their residence, No. 717 west Cary The Belfry Not Safe.

The Belley Not Sairs.

It was observed by Captain J. B. Angie on Friday that the bell at the Second Police-Station was not in a safe condition. Captain Angle called up Superintendent Thompson, of the Fire-Alarm Department, and the foreman of construction, Mr. Stephen, and Lineman Randolph, who is a practical carpenter, were directed to examine into the trouble.

They found that the belfry was in a dangerous condition, and it was ordered dangerous condition, and it was ordered that the bell be let alone until the bellry is repaired.

Superintendent Thompson notified the City Engineer, who announced that the Police Committee had charge of the station-houses.

Chairman Starke has notified the de-partment that the beifry will be strength-

Grand Charity Concert

POOR OF RICHMOND,

Mozart Academy, Wednesday, February 3.